"Poetry Under the Maple"

(5 Minute Prose and Storytelling, too)

We're trying something different this time!

An outdoor event on the walkway in front of the Library featuring Poetry Slam winner Julie Snee.

Limited seating; bring your chair.
